

Mansfield Women of Today Scholarship Application

The Mansfield Women of Today Scholarship Fund will grant a scholarship to a Mansfield resident (male or female) graduating from high school who will be continuing their formal education at an accredited educational institution requiring tuition. The award is based on the student's demonstration of the ideals embodied by the Mansfield Women of Today including:

- A strong commitment to community service
- Diversity and uniqueness of service to the community
- Ability to articulate an understanding of true community service
- Demonstration that civic-mindedness and serving others is pervasive in the student's life
- Demonstration of leadership and/or initiative
- Student strives to strengthen their individual talents
- A complete and thoughtful application including an essay and two letters of recommendation

In order to be considered for the scholarship, the following must be included:

- ✓ A completed application
- ✓ A typed essay which articulates your involvement in your community (see application for details)
- ✓ Two recommendations (see attached sheets—one must be from an adult in an organization in which you have done community service)
- ✓ Any additional sheets needed to demonstrate your involvement

All of the above items must be returned and postmarked no later than April 30th to:
